An Evening with Faversham Musical Theatre Choir

Faversham Musical Theatre Choir is an independent community choir from Kent specialising in songs from stage and screen. Run by professional musicians, Naomi Ash and Claire Snoad, FMTC has been running for just over 4 years. They have 55 regular members, over half of whom will be travelling to Royston for their concert. Most of their members have been with them from the first year and as a result they have a really fun, supportive community spirit - their performance is set to brighten your evening.

Faversham Musical Theatre Choir bring you well known favourites as well as some newer material you may not have heard before. You'll be toe tapping and singing all the way home after a night with them

Tickets are £10 adults; £2 under 18s.
